

Is a specialty at The Dispatch office. No matter what you may need in the way of printing, you will find it to your advantage to call and see samples and get prices before placing your order. Let us show you.

VOL. XL. NO. 47.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

John Crumbaker is recovering from the mumps.
A. L. Taylor went to Mississippi this week on business.
Mrs. Joe Wallace of Salem called in the village last Sunday.
Omar Kille of Alliance spent Saturday with Mrs. A. W. Leyman.
Miss Mabel Ballantyne of Leontonia called on friends here last Saturday.
Samuel Volz of Columbiana was the guest of Jacob Parry over Sunday.

Oscar Yoder of Greenford was employed as operator at the depot last week.

Misses Ollie Bailey and Marie Weiler were Youngstown visitors last Saturday.

William Kyle of Alliance called on his sister, Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rakestraw last Sunday entertained a company of relatives at dinner.

Rev. Richardson and Robert Dixon attended a church convention in Wooster last Thursday.

Misses Millie Matthy and Helen Peeler of Youngstown visited their parents here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckert of Ravenna and Mart Hoover of Alliance spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Herron of Calla were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herron last Sunday.

Arthur Brown of Waupuna, Pa., was the guest of Wm. Simpson and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vignon and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urmon in Sebring last Sunday.

Misses Alta and Margaret Metz and Miss Marie Crawford of Leontonia visited Miss Erma Culler over Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Hull and Mrs. Joshua Helser were in Alliance last Saturday to see Mrs. Warren, who is poor health.

Wm. Bell is suffering from a dislocated hip and is going to Bonessetter Reese in Youngstown next Saturday to have it set.

Miss Marjory Cook of Greenford visited a few days this week with her sisters, Mrs. Walter Smith, and Mrs. Charles Heron.

Mrs. Doll Senheiser and Mrs. Grace King of New Castle visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJane, Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Lutheran church, will begin a series of meetings next Sunday evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Thomas Thomas and grandson of Youngstown spent last Thursday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Simpson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James King and little daughter of Salem and Miss Marie King of New Castle visited Mr. and Mrs. George King, Sr., over Sunday.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Possage of West Point died last week of scarlet fever. The remains were taken to Leontonia last Saturday afternoon for burial.

A large crowd attended Simpson's sale last Saturday afternoon when the property and household goods were disposed of. George Allen bought the property for $1,600.

Sheriff Dalrymple and wife and daughters, Miss Mary of Lisbon and Mrs. Clifford Paisley of Youngstown attended the K. of P. anniversary celebration last Friday evening.

The senior class gave their play in Greenford last Saturday night before a large audience and realized $29. They had a hay load of 23 consisting of the players and their helpers.

The personal property and real estate of the late Mrs. Hannah Swartz will be sold at public sale March 10 by the administrator of the estate, Robert Weaver and C. M. Shively.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and little son Edwin Parker and Mrs. A. J. Lindsay of Columbiana and Mrs. Walter Lindsay of Cleveland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Johnson.

Mrs. William Culler left last Saturday for Sebring to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Howell, and husband. She suffered a stroke of paralysis early Sunday morning. She was unconscious until Monday but is reported some better at this writing.

Dorothy, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dalrymple, invited 60 of her little friends to her home last Saturday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday. Mrs. Dalrymple served a delicious lunch. Miss Dorothy received a number of presents of which she has put up a number as mementos of the happy occasion.

The Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters lodges held their anniversary meeting last Friday evening in town hall. A large crowd attended. The chairman was Ivan Davis and the program consisted of recitation, solos, instrumental solos and short talks by O. P. Moore, Rev. Richardson and Rev. Kerr. After the program the lunch committee took charge. Later in the evening the floor was cleared and they danced some of the good old dances. O. P. Moore's orchestra furnished the music.

Matthew Simpson, aged 66 years, died Monday night. He had been an invalid for about 20 years and made his home in this village for several years. He is survived by his wife, five daughters and two sons as follows: Mrs. Ada Woods and Miss Mary Simpson of this place, Mrs. Sadie Simpson of Salem, Miss Elizabeth Simpson and Mrs. George Frederick of Sebring, Bert Simpson of Mineral Ridge and James Simpson of Wellsville. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home, Rev. Kerr, pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. Burial in Oakland cemetery.

PETER'S POLISHED PARAGRAPHS

"Is Your Wife a Nuisance?" is a play being pulled off at the opera house this week.

Fifty or more boys and girls were counting on the public square all last week, between school hours.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FEBRUARY 23, 1917.

$1.00 A YEAR

YOU MAY HAVE A FRIEND

Who would greatly enjoy reading The Mahoning Dispatch every week. There is no sort of doubt about it if he or she ever lived in Mahoning county. The cost of this paper is so small that you should make at least one friend happy.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Brief Items Which Chronicle the Doings of People in the Village Bordering Two Counties.

BY CLARENCE BAKER

John Crumbaker is recovering from the mumps.
A. L. Taylor went to Mississippi this week on business.
Mrs. Joe Wallace of Salem called in the village last Sunday.
Omar Kille of Alliance spent Saturday with Mrs. A. W. Leyman.
Miss Mabel Ballantyne of Leontonia called on friends here last Saturday.
Samuel Volz of Columbiana was the guest of Jacob Parry over Sunday.

Oscar Yoder of Greenford was employed as operator at the depot last week.

Misses Ollie Bailey and Marie Weiler were Youngstown visitors last Saturday.

William Kyle of Alliance called on his sister, Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rakestraw last Sunday entertained a company of relatives at dinner.

Rev. Richardson and Robert Dixon attended a church convention in Wooster last Thursday.

Misses Millie Matthy and Helen Peeler of Youngstown visited their parents here over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckert of Ravenna and Mart Hoover of Alliance spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Herron of Calla were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herron last Sunday.

Arthur Brown of Waupuna, Pa., was the guest of Wm. Simpson and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vignon and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urmon in Sebring last Sunday.

Misses Alta and Margaret Metz and Miss Marie Crawford of Leontonia visited Miss Erma Culler over Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Hull and Mrs. Joshua Helser were in Alliance last Saturday to see Mrs. Warren, who is poor health.

Wm. Bell is suffering from a dislocated hip and is going to Bonessetter Reese in Youngstown next Saturday to have it set.

Miss Marjory Cook of Greenford visited a few days this week with her sisters, Mrs. Walter Smith, and Mrs. Charles Heron.

Mrs. Doll Senheiser and Mrs. Grace King of New Castle visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJane, Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Lutheran church, will begin a series of meetings next Sunday evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Thomas Thomas and grandson of Youngstown spent last Thursday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Simpson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James King and little daughter of Salem and Miss Marie King of New Castle visited Mr. and Mrs. George King, Sr., over Sunday.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Possage of West Point died last week of scarlet fever. The remains were taken to Leontonia last Saturday afternoon for burial.

A large crowd attended Simpson's sale last Saturday afternoon when the property and household goods were disposed of. George Allen bought the property for $1,600.

Sheriff Dalrymple and wife and daughters, Miss Mary of Lisbon and Mrs. Clifford Paisley of Youngstown attended the K. of P. anniversary celebration last Friday evening.

The senior class gave their play in Greenford last Saturday night before a large audience and realized $29. They had a hay load of 23 consisting of the players and their helpers.

The personal property and real estate of the late Mrs. Hannah Swartz will be sold at public sale March 10 by the administrator of the estate, Robert Weaver and C. M. Shively.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and little son Edwin Parker and Mrs. A. J. Lindsay of Columbiana and Mrs. Walter Lindsay of Cleveland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Johnson.

Mrs. William Culler left last Saturday for Sebring to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Howell, and husband. She suffered a stroke of paralysis early Sunday morning. She was unconscious until Monday but is reported some better at this writing.

Dorothy, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dalrymple, invited 60 of her little friends to her home last Saturday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday. Mrs. Dalrymple served a delicious lunch. Miss Dorothy received a number of presents of which she has put up a number as mementos of the happy occasion.

The Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters lodges held their anniversary meeting last Friday evening in town hall. A large crowd attended. The chairman was Ivan Davis and the program consisted of recitation, solos, instrumental solos and short talks by O. P. Moore, Rev. Richardson and Rev. Kerr. After the program the lunch committee took charge. Later in the evening the floor was cleared and they danced some of the good old dances. O. P. Moore's orchestra furnished the music.

Matthew Simpson, aged 66 years, died Monday night. He had been an invalid for about 20 years and made his home in this village for several years. He is survived by his wife, five daughters and two sons as follows: Mrs. Ada Woods and Miss Mary Simpson of this place, Mrs. Sadie Simpson of Salem, Miss Elizabeth Simpson and Mrs. George Frederick of Sebring, Bert Simpson of Mineral Ridge and James Simpson of Wellsville. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home, Rev. Kerr, pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. Burial in Oakland cemetery.

PETER'S POLISHED PARAGRAPHS

"Is Your Wife a Nuisance?" is a play being pulled off at the opera house this week.

Fifty or more boys and girls were counting on the public square all last week, between school hours.

ISLAND

Feb. 22—Mrs. Nellie Richard and daughter Esther called Sunday on Miss Iva Calvin at Maple Grove.

Adin Brubaker of East Lewistown spent Friday night with his uncle, Jonas Knopp.

S. R. Martin is making preparations to build a large tool and wagon shed.

Elise Felcht and family were entertained Sunday at S. D. Culp's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Calvin spent the weekend and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Pitzer, and brother, Irvin Cole, in Leeburg, Pa.

H. A. Schaefer was in Youngstown Thursday.

Jacob Lehman and family visited his sister, Mrs. Perry Van Pelt, Sunday and spent Sunday night at A. W. Detrow's.

Adin and Sam Martin and Norman Lehman called on Adin Brubaker in East Lewistown, Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Weller bought a horse at Fred Reber's sale.

Abe and Dan Weaver, with their wives, visited at Levi Yoder's last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stempfl spent Sunday with Henry Lehman and family.

All we reported ailing last week are convalescent.

Born, Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wisler, a baby boy.

S. R. Martin and family and Alta and Edith Lehman were Sunday visitors at Alvin Detrow's.

D. R. Lehman and wife were entertained Thursday by S. R. Martin and family.

Jonas and Lizzie Knopp attended the funeral of Steve Pickens in Stark county, Sunday.

Mark Calvin called Sunday on Oscar and Harry Calvin at Locust Grove.

Drs. Buckwalter and Weller performed a successful operation on Miss Sarah Schaefer Thursday in removing her tonsils and adenoids.

H. H. Calvin is getting out timber to build a garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wenger visited B. L. Weaver's, Sunday.

Frank Brudery and John Adams of Salem called on Fred Brudery Sunday.

Quite a number from here attended Levi Yoder's sale Tuesday.

Sam God and family visited Amos Martin and Mrs. Lovina Horst, Sunday.

The following were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Knapp Sunday: Henry, Lizzie, Fannie and Mary Riedl, Stella and Edith Wenger and Lizzie Lehman.

Miss Lizzie Diehl is doing house work for Mrs. Erma Fisher.

David Wenger called on Paul Martin Sunday afternoon.

Ira Blosser and family spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shank, of Columbiana.

Clairence Leher recently sold a cow to Ira Schuennberger of Washingtonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver, Amos Joseph, Hannah and Anna Wenger were Sunday visitors at Wm. Ziegler's in North Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Klingensmith called Sunday on Jonas Wisler and family.

A baby girl recently came to glad the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fisher.

Mrs. Samuel Burkholder and little grandchildren of Confederate Corners spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Leher.

We regret to note the death of Albert Esterly of Columbiana, a former resident of this place, who died Monday of pneumonia.

B. L. Weaver and wife called on Amos Martin and family and Mrs. Lovina Horst Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Basinger and sister, Miss Lydia Christopher, and Mrs. S. R. Martin called on Mrs. Ella Detrow, Wednesday.

Floyd Yoder has hired to C. J. Roller for this year.

Phares and Enos Wiltmer are kept busy delivering coal from the Greenford mines to Columbiana people.

B. L. Weaver and D. R. Lehman and families called on D. R.'s mother, Mrs. Susan Lehman, Saturday afternoon.

SMITH'S CORNERS

Feb. 21—Mrs. Lucy Snyder and daughter Maudeleine and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Albert spent Sunday afternoon in Youngstown.

Carah Crum called on Mrs. Charles Corli Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Martin Shears spent Tuesday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. Russell Seigel.

Mrs. Perry Kimmel and Earl Larkin are sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensign Neff of Canfield called at Eli Crum's Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lucy Snyder and children spent Monday evening at Chas. Corli's.

Mrs. Will Pfeiffer and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Chas. Corli.

Maude Corli spent Sunday afternoon with Esther Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rowe spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thomas.

Mr. Guy Stout and daughter have returned to Pittsburgh after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Snyder.

Mrs. Cloe McDonald and daughter Esther called on Grandma Snyder Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Daniel Lawrence is taking care of her daughter, Mrs. Perry Kimmel.

AUSTINTOWN

Feb. 21—A union Sunday school has been organized in Austintown and meets every Sunday afternoon at 2:30, eastern time, in the school building. The first session two weeks ago was attended by 35 persons and last Sunday there was an increase of 100 per cent, or 70. Much enthusiasm is being manifested by Christian workers of the community and the aim is to secure a regular attendance of 300 and this can be done if all workers do their full part.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

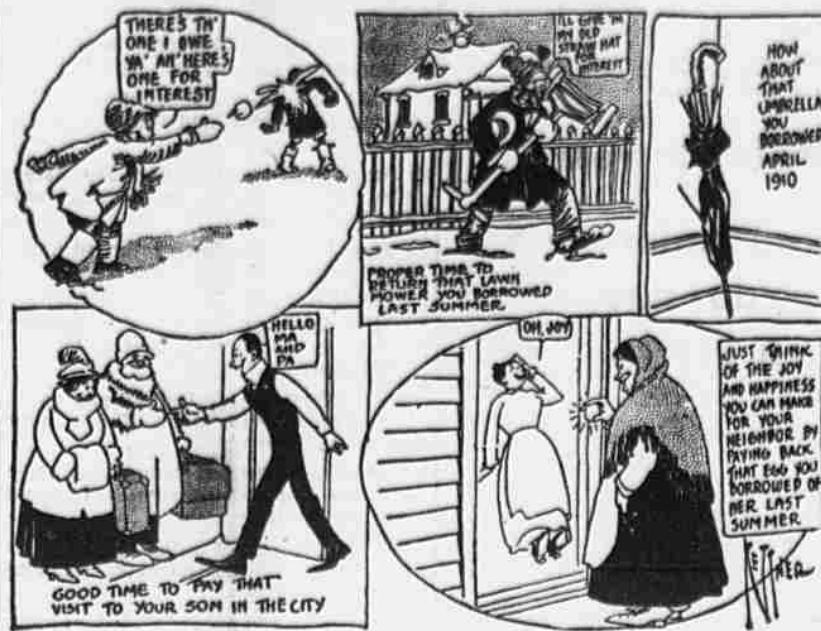

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

PAY-UP WEEK

CORNERSBURG

Feb. 21—James Lynn has recovered from pneumonia.

Delbert Straley is on the sick list.

Carl Follweiler called on Nelson Kimberly Sunday.

William Kern called on Fred Straley Sunday.

Isabelle McKay spent Thursday with Doris Hamman.

Mrs. Nathan Corli called on Mrs. Straley Monday.

Chas. Snyder had his foot badly sprained Friday.

Fred Straley called on W. H. Belcher Thursday evening.

Adam Shotts of Youngstown spent Sunday with Howard Miller.

Mrs. Howard Miller visited friends in Youngstown Sunday.

August Schmidt of Brier Hill was a caller in the burg Sunday.

Pearl Wilkerson was the weekend guest of Sadie Houser.

Evelyn Organ spent Sunday with her school-day chum, Sylvia Burgett.

Floyd Burgett called on Harry Follweiler of Perkins Corners Sunday.

Louise and Charles Belcher visited relatives in Youngstown Sunday.

Abner Houser called on Bert Hopkins of the Price Road Sunday.

Chas. Belcher had his finger badly injured while playing last week.

Blacksmith Chapman is a busy man these days, owing to weather conditions.

Frank Brooks has purchased a new motorcycle with sidecar attachment.

Wesley Brown of Youngstown called on old friends in the burg Thursday.

Ruth Straley, Lucille and Virginia Deibel were the guests of Delphine Zimmet Sunday.

Otis Wallace of Youngstown spent Sunday in the home of J. C. Grimm.

Mrs. Chas. Straley and daughter Esther spent Thursday evening in the home of David Mesmer.

Mrs. Mary B. Youngstown and Bert Hopkins of Price Road were in the burg Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greier and daughter Lucille of Youngstown spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Nathan Corli.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice White of Canton are visiting in the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Riblet.

While Walter Crum was driving to Youngstown last week his horse suddenly became frightened and ran away, demolishing the buggy and throwing the occupants out. Luckily no one was seriously injured.

The program to be held in the south side schoolhouse March 2 will include an interesting debate on the subject of intervention in Mexico. As the debaters include prominent attorneys from Youngstown, the affair promises to be fine.

Friday school will be held as usual in the M. E. Church at 10:30 sharp. Epworth League at 6:45. Topic, "Christ's power to keep us." Preaching by the pastor at 7:30. Members are requested not to forget the Wednesday evening prayer service.

NORTH CANFIELD STREET

Feb. 21—Paul Matthews visited his home in Ellsworth Sunday.

Roy Cruthers, Howard Snyder and Randall Albert called on Wm. Shafer Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hallie Coughspen spent Saturday in Youngstown.

Miss Margaret Williamson, Donald Yeager and Mrs. H. C. Clay, who are on the sick list, are somewhat improved.

Miss Bertha Arner of Ellsworth was a weekend guest of Hallie Allspaugh.

Mrs. John Bartholomew and Mrs. Rachel Yeager were in Youngstown Saturday.

Will Yeager called at H. C. Clay's Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. DeCamp spent Sunday evening at Nathan Blott's.

Miss Charlotte Musser spent Sunday afternoon at J. C. Allspaugh's.

Ed, Barger and family and Mrs. N. Blott attended a funeral in Boardman Saturday.

O. S. Rhodes was in Niles Saturday. George Calhoun's sale Wednesday was largely attended.

Mrs. B. K. DeCamp of Youngstown, Miss Alice Neff and Wm. Helwig of Obitown and Mrs. Grace Shafer spent Sunday at Wm. A. Grimm's.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rupert and the former's sister of Indiana and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rupert of Crane St. ate their Sunday dinner at R. F. DeCamp's.

Evelyn Shafer called on Beatrice Clay Tuesday evening.

Thomas Yeager assisted Wm. Gardner with his work on Tuesday.

Eva Yeager went to North Jackson Tuesday to haul logs.

For results, Dispatch Classified Columns.

MAPLE GROVE

Feb. 21—Miss Ethel Felcht of Nasby Corners called on her aunt, Clara Felcht, Wednesday.

The sale of the personal property of the late Mary P. Calvin Friday was largely attended.

Frank Crumbacher and George Harter of East Lewistown called on John Cool, Friday.

C. R. Davis and wife spent Sunday with Allen Culp and family.

"The Loyal Sons and Daughters of the Christian Church of Greenford held a class meeting at the home of E. N. Beardsley.

Mary Burkholder spent Sunday with her friend, Thelma Culp.

Mrs. Amelia Mellinger, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Burkholder, visited Clarence Leher and family of Island.

Raymond Reichard spent Saturday evening in Greenford.

Fred Boyer was in Youngstown Saturday.

Edward Frankford is suffering with rheumatism.

Warren Cool was in Washingtonville Friday.

There was an old-fashioned quilting at Menno Brubaker's Monday.

Sarah, daughter of Henry Schaefer, had her tonsils removed last Friday.

The Sewing Circle met Wednesday at the home of Angeline Calvin.

J. R. Sauerwein and family of East Lewistown spent Sunday at Walter Johnson's.

The estate of the late John Harmon was appraised last Saturday.

Mrs. D. Calvin and F. Hendricks are cutting fence posts.

Said that wedding bells will soon ring in the Grove.